Attracting and Retaining Youth in Agriculture (ARYA)

Objectives of the ARYA Project:

- > Attract and empower rural youth to engage in agriculture, allied sectors, and service enterprises for sustainable income and meaningful employment.
- > Facilitate the formation of network groups among farm youth to undertake resource- and capital-intensive activities like processing, value addition, and marketing.
- > Establish functional linkages with institutions and stakeholders to converge opportunities from various schemes and programs for the sustainable development of rural youth.
- > Curb the migration of rural youth to urban areas by creating attractive agricultural opportunities and retaining the agricultural workforce in rural regions.

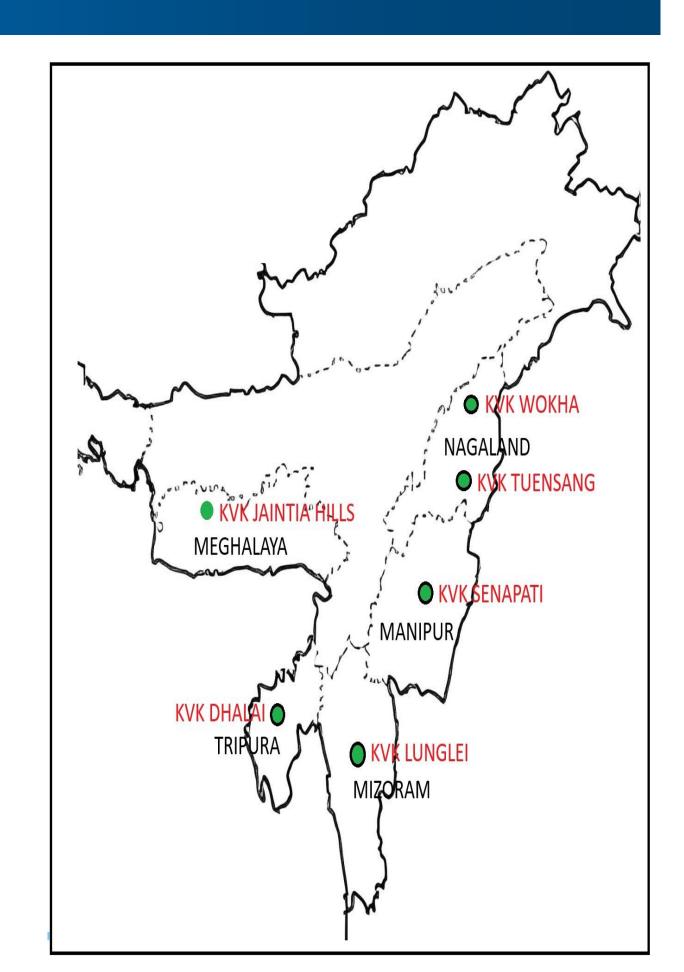

Key Features of the ARYA Project:

- * Focuses on creating model youth-led enterprises in selected districts.
- * Promotes entrepreneurship and innovation in agriculture and allied sectors.
- * Encourages skill development and capacity building for rural youth.
- * Demonstrates successful models of agricultural enterprises to inspire replication.
- * Strengthens rural livelihoods while contributing to national food security.
